

Grief Support Group for Teens

Offered in February and March, 2021

After the loss of a loved one, coping with daily living can be hard. Knowing you are not alone in your difficult journey can make all the difference.

Haven offers grief support for children and teens coping with loss. This program is nondenominational and offered at no cost. We will supply materials for participation. Registration is limited. Please register for the next session no later than February 12.

If you are interested in participating, please email CommunityResources@BeYourHaven.org with your name, email and phone number for log-in instructions.
