

NOTICE OF NONDISCRIMINATION

Discrimination is against the law.

BrightSpring Health Services and affiliated agencies comply with applicable federal civil rights laws and do not discriminate, exclude people, or treat them less favorably because of social status, political belief, race, color, creed, religion, national origin (including limited English proficiency and primary language), sex (including sex characteristics, including intersex traits; pregnancy or related conditions; sexual orientation; gender identity and sex stereotypes), age, disability (including mental illness and substance use disorders), or any combination thereof with regard to admission, access to treatment, or employment.

We provide people with disabilities reasonable modifications and free appropriate auxiliary aids and services to communicate effectively with us, such as qualified sign language interpreters and written information in other formats (large print, audio, accessible electronic formats, and other formats). We provide free language assistance services to people whose primary language is not English, which may include qualified interpreters and information written in other languages.

If you need reasonable modifications, appropriate auxiliary aids and services, or language assistance services, contact our Civil Rights Coordinator.

If you believe that we have failed to provide these services or discriminated in any other way, you may file a grievance with our Civil Rights Coordinator by phone at (502) 630-7023, by email at Compliance@BrightSpringHealth.com, or in person or by mail at 805 N.
